Sparling Says
Construction To Start in Spring

Construction of new freight facilities in Edmonton for Canadian National Railways, expected to cost more than $1,000,000, will be commenced next spring.

Announcement of this was made here by H. R. Sparling, Winnipeg, general manager of western region of CNR, who arrived in the city today to make a final check of plans for the new buildings.

The new buildings would stretch for almost four blocks from just west of 100 street to 104 street, between 104 avenue and the main CNR tracks.

The main freight building will be erected near the site of the old CNR station.

Laying of a new double track in conjunction with improving freight facilities has already been completed here.

Mr. Sparling said contract for erecting the buildings has not yet been let, but tenders would be called for shortly after the new year.

Jews Obey Truce Edict In Palestine

Egyptians Expected
To Follow Order
Of UN Also

TEL. AVIV, Oct. 20.—(BU)—The government of Israel ordered its forces in the Negev district of Palestine tonight to cease fire in compliance with a United Nations decision.

The Israeli cease fire order was issued after the cabinet had debated the UN order for several hours.

However, the fighting went on unabated during the discussion, and both Arabs and Jews were reported throwing in reinforcements.

Mr. Paul secured a clear majority over his two opponents on the first round.

Mr. Paul was born in Coleraine, Northern Ireland, in January, 1892. He came to Canada in May, 1912, and was an executive of the James O'Connell staff, still with 1921 when he started farming in the Nanaimo district.

He retired from active farming in 1946. His sons are now carrying on.

For three years he was chairman of the agricultural section of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce and during the war he worked on Victory Loans and was a member of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Board.

Zacharuk Convicted Of Spedden Murder

YOUTHFUL MIKE ZACHARUK WILL DIE ON THE SCAFFOLD AT FORT SASKATCHEWAN JAN. 12 FOR THE SHOTGUN MURDER OF WILLIAM PACHOLK NEAR SPEDDEN LAST MAY.

Convicted by a supreme court jury that deliberated one hour and 15 minutes Tuesday, the 20-year-old Mike Zacharuk, a Jew, was immediately sentenced by Mr. Justice C. J. Fort.

The convicted youth stood calmly in the prisoner's dock, his face betraying not the slightest emotion as he heard the grim words of the presiding justice.

MOTHER WEEPS
He made no reply when Mr. Justice Fort asked:

"Have you anything to say as to why the judgment of this court should not be pronounced upon you?"

Hidden from view of her son in the body of the courtroom, Justice Fort's grey-haired mother bowed her head and silently wept.

The father and one sister, 15-year-old Mary Zacharuk, sat dazed by what seemed a verdict at $57 per day.

In answer to the clerk's query: "How say ye, is the accused guilty or not guilty as charged?" Mr. Justice Fort replied:

"I find Mike Zacharuk guilty." His voice almost breaking at times, Mr. Justice Fort pronounced the death sentence.

"Then you have found your guilty I have no option but to sentence you according to law. You will be taken here to the provincial jail at Fort Saskatchewan and confined there until the 12th day of January."

Then you were taken to the place of execution and hanged by the neck until you were dead and may God have mercy on your soul."

There followed a hushed moment when only the ticking of the clock could be heard. Then the bench adjourned. The jurors for their services during the week-long trial and adjourned court still met next morning at 10 o'clock.

SHOWS NO STRAIN
After the courtroom cleared, Zacharuk peered around the corner of the prisoner's dock as if he were hoping to see his parents but they had already left the room. Still showing no sign of strain (Continued on Page 2)

North Farmer Is Acquitted Of Murder

Special To The Bulletin
GRANDE PRAIRIE, Oct. 20.—A jury Tuesday acquitted Ralph Stanley Fleet of the July 28 Sports Day murder of Sam Harbuck, Northern Alberta farmer, at Ryerfort.

Mr. Justice S. J. Sheppard and the seven jury held 12 witnesses during the one-day trial at Grande Prairie.

Dr. F. M. Law, Spirit River, testified that Harbuck died of a fracture of the windpipe and suffocation of both lungs.

SPORTS DAY BRAWL
Crown alleged the fracture was caused when the accused kicked Harbuck about the head and neck at a sports day brawl in Ryerfort.

Other witnesses testified that the two men had been bickering in a beer parlor after consuming a quantity of beer, and on two occasions had been separated by a waiter.

Blockade End Will be Asked

PARIS, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Western sources said today they expect one of the "Little Big" neutral countries will ask the Security Council Friday to recommend lifting of "Russia's Berlin blockade. Canada is a member of this group.

A resolution to this effect is understood to be already in draft.

The informants said they understood the plan was to call upon the council simultaneously to stress the need for an early meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers' council to settle both the Berlin and the all-German question.

FEARFUL OF MOVE
However, France's security council delegate, Alexandre Parodi, was reported to have expressed uneasiness about having any resolution on the Berlin crisis submitted to the Security Council at all.

Such a move, Parodi was reported to have told his American and British colleagues, would only have the effect of slamming one of the last doors between east and west.

The informants said the French man made it clear he was speaking for himself rather than for his government.

The Security Council, which yesterday heard the United States charges that Russia is using the Berlin blockade even as the council took its case, convenes again on the issue Friday.

Reports Conflicting On DP Camp Stories

WINNIPEG, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Agriculture Minister D. L. Campbell of Manitoba said today the report of a provincial group which yesterday investigated conditions at the Emerson, Man., displaced persons' camp will vindicate his department's contention that the DPs are not living in "squalor, dirt and misery."

The report, not yet completed, is expected to be released sometime tomorrow.

Another report, being prepared by federal investigators who also visited the camp yesterday, is believed to be less favorable in its appraisal of conditions. This report will be forwarded to Arthur Meighen, federal deputy labor minister, at Ottawa.

The investigations were ordered following published reports that the DPs were living in unhealthy and generally unsatisfactory conditions.

CLAIMED DISAPPROVED
Mr. R. Richardson, director of the Manitoba Farm Help Service, who accompanied provincial investigators on their inspection trip yesterday, said the four disproved charges that fish, sugar and general unsatisfactory conditions prevailed.

"The Winnipeg Tribune, which circulated the investigation Monday with a story charging the camps were unsatisfactory, said the report of federal investigators would substantiate charges that sanitary conditions were unsatisfactory, food storage and living quarters did not conform with regulations."

Paul Manager Of Exhibition

James Paul, retired Nanaimo farmer and long a resident of the Edmonton district, was named manager of the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

His selection was made Tuesday night by directors of the organization from 27 applicants.

He will take over his duties soon, succeeding Charles E. Wilson, who has occupied the post for several years.

A committee screened the applications and three names were placed before the directors.

The other two were Rupert D. Ramsay, former member of the Progressive Conservative party in Saskatchewan, and Hugh H. Wilson, Edmonton school inspector.

Mr. Paul secured a clear majority over his two opponents on the first round.

Mr. Paul was born in Coleraine, Northern Ireland, in January, 1892. He came to Canada in May, 1912, and was an executive of the James O'Connell staff, still with 1921 when he started farming in the Nanaimo district.

South Korea Battle Looms

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 20.—(AP)—A pitched battle between loyal and insurgent forces was expected in the extreme southern part of Korea tonight after a rebel band of soldiers killed or captured 100 policemen at a town.

The uprising began in the south and spread quickly to Suwon, 12 miles away. Yoon said the rebels were led by Communist soldiers.

'Collaborator' Wants to Stay

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—(CP)—The Globe and Mail, in a telephone interview with Dr. Andre Emmanuel Housat, one of the central figures in Canada's "immigrant collaborators" case, today quoted the 45-year-old French surgeon as saying he wished to remain in the dominion, become a citizen and work as a doctor.

One of four French immigrants, accused of being Nazi collaborators, permitted to remain in Canada, Dr. Housat said in the interview that the "legitimate" French government had no interest in extradition of the quartet.

The accusation against them "probably came from Maurice Thorez, French Communist leader."

Dr. Housat was a member of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Board.

Oil Self-Sufficiency Seen for Prairies Soon

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Dr. G. S. Hume, chief of the geological survey, resumed discussion today at night that new discoveries in oil in Alberta will make the Prairie provinces self-sufficient in a short time.

"It is certain that the Prairie provinces will be self-sufficient and yield a surplus as a result of the discoveries of the Leduc and Redwater wells near Edmonton."

He told the Ottawa branch of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Currently, the Leduc field is producing more than 500,000 barrels of oil a month. In June, the Leduc field surpassed the famed Turner Valley in production.

Dr. Hume said the Redwater field has not started production yet but it contains great potential.

He warned that the West Coast will not be able to get sufficient oil by importing from California.

He doubted if oil from the new Alberta fields will be transported east.

360 Years in Jail For Pseudo Nail Salesman

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., Oct. 20.—(CP)—Leo Lacroix, 45, pseudo nail salesman who gained $50,000 from his Vancouver-to-Halifax masquerade, was sentenced here yesterday to a total of 360 years in penitentiary to be served concurrently in seven years.

He was arrested here last week while attempting to cash a false cheque.

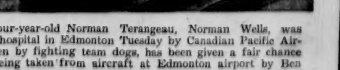

When arraigned before magistrate Victor Chabot yesterday he faced 19 charges ranging from small thefts to false pretences and issuing false cheques.

He was wanted by police in Ottawa, Toronto, Fort York, Edmonton, Calgary and several British Columbia cities.

Police said he started in Vancouver, impersonating a nail salesman and found buyers as far as Gaspe, Que. In February, 1947, he is alleged to have netted more than $15,000 by selling nails to merchants in Abitibi, Que. and Toronto. The nails never were delivered.

As a false cheque specialist, he is reported to have stolen $16,000 from a bank in Gaspe while posing as a business man opening a branch firm in that area.

His arrest here was the culmination of months of extensive investigation. The accounts of his part in the Lacroix case, because of the suspicious of Lacroix's meticulous methods and notified the police.

The Nation

Secretary of the Canadian Protestant League, Rev. J. B. McLellan of Toronto said Canada reached her present position through Protestant leadership and the Protestant League "viewed with alarm" the possibility of Louis St. Laurent, a member of the Knights of Columbus, becoming a Canadian prime minister.

As a result of the recent conference of Russian ministers and Commonwealth leaders, Prime Minister C. D. Howe said the government is ready to establish machinery which will enable the republic of Korea to work in full business and factual association with the Commonwealth.

Federal authorities said fearfully away from the question of just what would happen to provinces if it decided to hold a lottery. Always seems to be that, under the law, the province would be obliged to arrest and throw itself into the clink.

Inquiries will be conducted by the Navy at Dartmouth, N.S., into the death of two naval pilots who crashed on successive days last week.

Suggestion by Robert Saunders, Ontario Hydro commissioner that Canadian waters might be achieved off Ontario waters to augment the power supply, was greeted with skepticism by the navy. Reports Conflict On DP Camps

From the prisoner's box and through evidence taken before a special commission in London, Miroslav Vukobratovic, Nanaimo coal miner, is attempting to justify the character of Dr. Mladen Gustin Zorkin.

On CRIMES COURT Dr. Zorkin is living here in an anti-Communist lecturer, author and former War Crimes Commission member in London.

The crown charges Vukobratovic with criminal libel while the coal miner is attempting to substantiate his charges that Zorkin is a traitor to Yugoslavia.

Vukobratovic charges that Zorkin was an army deserter, a Nazi collaborator and a member of the "Euzepac" terrorist group, accused of committing horrendous war crimes.

Beams of closely-tied testimony taken in London are being read here.

"SHOCKED BY LIES" Dr. Radica Vilišic, a boyhood "friend" of Zorkin's who testified while he was in London as physician with the Yugoslav Olympic team, said he had been shocked yesterday he was "shocked by the lies Zorkin is saying in America."

Vilišic, who belonged to one wing of the Croatian peasant party which he was in London as physician, threw down his arms when the Germans struck and fled back to his home in Solit, Yugoslavia.

PLEADS JUSTIFICATION At his home, said the testimony Zorkin consorted with war criminals, drank and played cards with them.

Vukobratovic, the accused, is pleading "justification" for levelling public charges against Zorkin. In his defence he claimed the anti-Communist lecturer has "built himself up" in Canada as an important personage, whereas, claimed Vukobratovic, Zorkin played "a very poor part in the struggles of his native land."

Zachariuk Will Hang January 12

The convicted man was led down stairs to a waiting RCMP patrol car by two constables.

Closing stages of the trial were featured by a strong plea for acquittal by Defence Counsel Frank Dunne. His Lordship's charge to the jury.

Mr. Dunne, who called no evidence, was one hour in addressing the jury.

Mr. Justice Ford took one hour and 30 minutes to deliver his verdict.

Only MURDER VERDICT He said it was obvious that who ever shot Pacheck could be guilty and the evidence submitted, only of the murder.

The task of the jurors actually boiled down to one question: to decide whether or not the facts proved the Crown's contention that Zachariuk fired the fatal shot.

The justice warned the jurors they must be agreed there was no other "rational" explanation for Pacheck's death than accused killed him, before they could convict.

Although it is not necessary for the Crown to prove a motive in a murder trial, evidence of a motive might assist in reaching a verdict, His Lordship pointed out.

He suggested the jury give careful consideration to suggestions of defence counsel, that accused had made a deal for farm machinery and stock with Pacheck.

The court reviewed painstakingly the evidence of all Crown witnesses, weighing what he considered important evidence and conversations.

The court considered it significant that Pacheck was last seen alive on the night of May 2, at his farm home with accused his supper guest.

Mr. Dunne contended the crown had not actually firmly established that William Pacheck was dead. He said there was sound reason to doubt identification of the body found miles from the Pacheck farm, was complete and satisfactory.

Dealing with evidence of experts as to guns and finger prints he said: "Experts can be wrong."

He stressed that Zachariuk had been "shot about his actions in taking farm machinery, stock and grain from the Pacheck farm."

Defence Counsel also reminded the jurors that Zachariuk had asked a crown witness to accompany him to Harry Hills on May 14. The crown contended that ac-

2 Russian Deserters Reach American Zone

VIENNA, Oct. 20.—(AP)—A twin-engine Russian bomber with two officer deserters from the Soviet Air Force landed at the United States air base near Linz, Oct. 9. American sources said today.

The plane and one member of its crew—a sergeant—were returned to Russian custody. Two officers who said they were fleeing the Soviet Union were given refuge in the United States zone of Austria.

The pilot and navigator of the plane said they were trying to escape for "political reasons" for more than a year, the United States sources reported.

The craft took off from a base in the Ukraine on what was supposed to be a routine training flight. The pilot said his maps did not extend beyond Linz.

He brought his plane down on the first airfield he saw after reaching the United States occupation zone of Austria, the informant said.

The sergeant was quoted as saying he did not know the pilot's destination until the plane was in the air.

He said the body of Pacheck in the trunk of his car at the time. Following were members of the jury: Robert B. Gieser, foreman; Steve Hrusky, Emil Miller, Raymond Wallis, Harry Grant and W. Coleman.

APPEAL CONSIDERED Possibility of an appeal from the murder conviction and death sentence passed on Mike Zachariuk by Defence Counsel Frank Dunne.

We are studying the trial records in the light of a possible appeal but have not yet reached a decision, Mr. Dunne said today.

Zachariuk was sentenced Tuesday to hang Jan. 12 for the murder of William Pacheck, Spedden district farmer.

Big 5, Canada Get Atom Vote

PARIS, Oct. 20.—(CP)—The United Nations voted today to turn the atomic energy dispute over to the "Big Five" with instructions to try for agreement on basic principles.

The 58-member political committee first rejected a Soviet proposal which would have outlawed the atom bomb simultaneously with setting up of an atomic energy control organization.

The vote to turn back the dispute to the United States, Russia, Britain, France, China and Canada was taken on a Canadian resolution. The roll-call vote was 41 to 6, with 10 delegations abstaining and one absent.

On the basis of this vote, the Canadian proposal is assured of easily winning the necessary two-thirds majority approval in the full General Assembly, all of whose countries are represented in the political committee.

The action climaxed long east-west debate. The Russian proposal to outlaw the bomb had been foredoomed to failure. Western delegates had denounced it.

Northern Radio System Marks 25th Anniversary

A most remarkable radio network centering on Edmonton celebrates its 25th birthday today.

It is the far-flung but well-organized network of 29 transmitter stations of the North-West Territories and Yukon System operated by the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals.

Barvelled trappers bearded prospectors and igloo-dwelling Eskimos now obtain several times the latest news and the nationally-known radio entertainment programs through this unique air network.

Possibly of greatest value to the scattered populace of Canada's far-flung northland, however, are the hourly weather broadcasts and the personal message service.

The HCBS station in Edmonton has played a great role of recent years in speaking aid to victims of mishap in the isolated stretches of the northland.

HAS 25 STATIONS The system has 26 radio stations and five broadcast stations for local information, entertainment and education.

An additional broadcast station is operated at Fort Churchill in Northern Manitoba.

Oil Dispute Board Concludes 71 Hearings

Alberta's one man board of arbitration for disputes between oil-drilling firms and holders of surface rights has made 71 decisions since its operations were commenced.

Hon. Lucien Maynard, attorney-general said today.

The board, set up by legislation in the 1941 session of the Alberta Legislature, is N. G. Meldrum, and his task is to adjudicate in disputes between farmers, who hold only surface rights on lands, and the oil companies who drill on the land.

It was learned today only 140 applications had been made to board and over half of these had been dealt with and completed.

Mr. Meldrum told The Bulletin 31 of the applications completed were in the Leduc field, and that a number were pending investigation or completion of the drilling.

He said no decision can be given until drilling is completed.

In many cases the farmer concerned and oil companies arrive at amicable agreement without board intervention. The board is only called on when negotiations between these two parties come to a deadlock.

Applications may be made while drilling is progressing, he said, and the land is inspected by himself and an official assessor. No decision can be given till the well is completed, since part of the award is for rental of the land surface. If no suit is filed, the rental can be only for a brief period.

Better Radio Is Forecast For Alberta

Improvement in general standard and efficiency of radio is expected to result from policy changes in the Canadian Association of Broadcasters' set up, Alberta regional members of the CAB were told today by J. T. Allard, general manager of the association.

Mr. Allard addressed Alberta station representatives meeting at the Macdonald hotel in a two-day conference.

Interchange of ideas regarding sales, training of personnel and program will be possible under the new set-up, Mr. Allard told the meeting.

Plans will also include more extensive training of radio station personnel including announcers, salesmen and writers.

Efforts will also be made to bring public service work done by private radio stations to public notice.

Dr. W. H. Swift To Montana

Montana educationists will hear details of Alberta's enlarged school divisions at Great Falls next week from Dr. W. H. Swift, deputy minister of education.

Dr. Swift has been invited to speak to the annual convention of the Montana Education Association and has indicated he is accepting the invitation.

Dr. Swift was also a guest at a convention of school administrators at Missoula, Montana, earlier this year.

Talks Postponed On Empire Future

Commonwealth Ministers Discuss World Status

By Stuart Underhill

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(CP)—The future structure of the British Commonwealth probably will not be decided for at least another year or two.

It was learned last night the Commonwealth prime ministers meeting here have not scheduled open discussion of constitutional problems such as the status of dominions who might wish to abandon allegiance to the Crown, now one of the main links of the Commonwealth.

The sources said if any constitutional changes are to be made they will probably not be announced until the next meeting of the prime ministers—perhaps a year away, perhaps two.

Yesterday delegates heard Foreign Secretary Bevin of Britain give a review of the international situation "with particular reference to Europe and the West."

"The West" was thought to be intended in the widest sense—that is, to concern relationship of Canada and the United States to western Europe. This discussion had been held over from last week to permit arrival of Louis St. Laurent to replace Prime Minister Mackenzie King, who is ill.

A communiqué said the prime ministers "agreed upon the importance of the maintenance of and revival of democracy in Europe." It is understood that the talks emphasized the economic aspects of European recovery and unquestionably the problems of Communism were considered. All prime ministers or their representatives made statements.

The squadron and its commander, Capt. J. C. Hildner, were greeted by Capt. W. S. Hayerk, assistant chief of staff, Hawaiian sea frontier, British Consul L. H. Hewart, and Duke Kahanamoku, Honolulu sheriff.

17 Workers Hurt In Plant Blast
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 20.—(AP)—An explosion of acetylene gas in a plant of the Seeger Refrigerator Company caused injuries to 17 employees today. Officials estimated damage at $100,000.

Many delegates will meet here Oct. 21 to set the convention date and there is some speculation the convention may be held before the end of the year.

GREGG LAUDS POPPY DAY

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Veterans Affairs Minister Gregg last night said that it was a good thing that in life full of materialism the "spirit of poppy day still finds its way up and down the streets of our country."

Mr. Gregg, a Victoria Cross winner as the First World War spoke at a poppy day organization meeting in Ottawa. He said there was a continuing and urgent need for poppy campaign funds to assist many veterans.

The store for midday—use of the finest of its kind in western Canada—officially opens tomorrow.

No expense has been spared in making this fashionable headquarters modern and attractive in every manner.

Cheerful interior design, colorful, set feminine appealing features. Flowers, draperies and furniture, combine majestically in creating a cozy and comfortable atmosphere which abounds in business appeal.

Five clothes racks of the latest fashioned dresses, in wool, crepe, silk and rayon, which are certain to appeal to Edmonton women, are housed on the left side of the premises as you enter. At the far end, prior to entering Charm Shoes Salon section, are two comfortable and spacious dressing rooms where customers may try on their proposed purchases for size.

The right side of the premises features three display counters, two show cases and several model racks displaying women's apparel, and on this side of the store are two more cozy dressing rooms.

A revolving mannequin is located in the centre of the fashion headquarters, which displays one of the store's exclusive dresses.

Proprietor of the Mandarin Dress Salon is Edward C. Marr, who has been associated in business in Edmonton for the past 20 years. His wife, Mrs. Ann C. Marr, will operate the new store as manager.

Both Mr. Marr and his wife were born and educated in British Columbia, he originating from Cumberland and she from Victoria.

The Marrs first came to Edmonton 20 years ago, "because we believed it to be a good business city," said Mr. Marr.

They first opened a Mandarin store on 101 street in the Recreation building but later moved their premises to 10231 Jasper avenue.

This store presently operated by managers Mrs. Barbara Hughes, features sundies, blouses, lingerie and silks.

BOXES ABSENT

A notable feature is the absence of the many shoe boxes that usually are most prominent in many shoe stores. At Charm Shoes these shoe boxes are concealed behind an attractive panelling that encircles the premises in an ultra modern pattern.

Cosy and comfortable chairs of the most modern design are spaced around the shoe salon in horse shoe fashion and the floor is covered with a rich carpet, featuring a floral design on a grey base.

Three tri-lite lamps have been installed to add to the coziness of the premises and these blend in perfect harmony with the attractive indirect fluorescent lighting.

Grey and pink predominates in the color scheme of the interior decorating. Soft toned pastel pink color effect is featured along the walls and ceiling.

The streamlined panelling, constructed of the latest designed Weldex and presenting a unique pattern, has been attractively decorated in a rose-tinted grey which blends in perfectly with the pink-toned walls and ceiling and the attractive grey-base floral fashioned carpet.

Flyers Preparing For Calgary Jaunt

Flyers, with two wins under their belts in as many starts, enjoyed a rest from practice Tuesday. They swing right back into their routine tonight, however, by way of preparing for their first Calgary invasion of the season, scheduled for Friday. They head south on that day, via the railroad.

Flyers remember their last visit to Victoria Arena with considerable satisfaction. It marked the final game of the Allan Cup series, the Curriemen polishing off Ottawa Senators 5-3 to take charge of the historic cup.

Just how much of a figure the current Stampeder machine can be expected to cut is not too clear, in their only start to date they walloped Saskatoon Quakers 7-0. The Quakers being very much in the picture for two periods.

Letter To Editor

Tuesday, Oct. 19, 1948
Sports Editor, The Bulletin.

STAMPED WEAKLY
I don't think the Stampeder are as strong as last season. Bobby Kirk, Saskatoon coach, expressed the opinion here earlier in the week. His sentiment, Ken Mc-Aulley, re-checked the Stampeder ideas on the subject.

Bob Brownridge is retirement this breaking up the Calgary attacking trio of Ken Hunter-Duncan-Brownridge, one of the most point lines in the history of the modern Western loop. To replace the highly effective Brownridge, Manager Dave Duchak brought on 21-year-old Jimmy Milne, a season with Vancouver Canucks of the Pacific Coast league.

Other former Canucks who came over the mountains to look on with the Stampers are Defenseman Chuck Millman and Winger Bobby Ballman. Millman, a colorful, hard-hitting rearward, played with the Stampers before the war. Archie Scott, youthful forward with Trail Smoke Eaters in the 1947-48 campaign, also has been added to the Stampeder roster.

However Flyers aren't likely to view the addition of Milman and the others with much alarm. In their two winning starts the Allan Cup Kings have got outscored for 20 goals. Off this kind of offensive strength the locals need have no great fear of any other team in the circuit.

ICE CHIPS

Doug Anderson suffered no ill effects to his ailing shoulder as a result of his efforts against the Saskatoon Quakers in Monday's 14-3 schlemmer. "The treatments go on just the same but the expectation is that he'll be completely recovered before too long."
Denny McManus, who tended the nets for Lethbridge last night at Regina, is a sometime Ontario Hockey Association.

Canucks In Win

Vancouver Canucks Tuesday night moved into a four-way tie for second place in the Pacific Coast league by beating Portland Eagles 4-2 in a slowdown at Kansas Pacific and moving clear.

THIS TIME IT'S "DEFINITE"

Louis Changes Mind: To Defend Title Again

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Joe Louis changed his mind Tuesday and said he will defend his heavyweight championship again next June.

The Brown Bomber said "definitely" when he announced his decision to repudiate his afternoon first he had conferred with Mike Jacobs, president of the 20th Century Sporting Club, and Harry Markson, recently appointed managing director of the fight promotional outfit.

The title will be Yankee Stadium and the likely opponent Enzo Angelini, who he defeated last year.
The champ has been wavering for some time.

It was right after he flattened
Joe Walcott in the 11th round at Yankee stadium last June.

REGINA, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Regina Capitals moved into a first-place tie with Edmonton Flyers in the Western Canada hockey league Tuesday night with a 3-0 victory over Leth- bridge Maple Leafs.

Before a home-town crowd of approximately 3,000 fans, Capitals marked up their second victory of the young season—a record similar to that of the Canadian champion Flyers.

Caps were able to produce the victory without the services of the veteran former professional star, Sweeney Schirner. Schirner did not dress because he now is recovering from a nose operation designed to aid his breathing.

NIP-AND-TUCK

Play was nip-and-tuck early in the first period, with first one team then the other making breaks. Regina had the first good chance to score when Al McDougall went in alone on goalie McManis only to hit the post, then Bill Kyle went in only to be stopped by McManis.
Last year with New Westminster of the PCHL.

However, the home team was not to be denied and McDougall finally slipped a low shot past McManis. The Capitals then playing play with linemen Bill Kyle and Hermine Gruhn.

In the second period, the Leafs pressed while Harvey Barnes was off tripping, but Regina came back with two goals. The first in front of the Lethbridge net only to have McManis block it. Similarly, Don Menzies missed an open net on a break-away as Barnes came back on the wing. Then Bentley blocked Steve Latoski as he broke behind the net with New Westminster of the PCHL.

AB McDougall, 20, broke the ice.
... Broke the ice.

DULL AND LISTLESS

The crowd found little to cheer about as play turned raged. Regina was not worked so hard but turned in the end of the period.

Caps put on a dancing attack from the drop in the second period and the puck in the third and the McManis pulled off two goals from close in. Taggart roared back only to miss the net.

Play again turned raged as both teams seemed to be firing. Mc-Manis, McKelvey, and Bentley were not worked so hard but turned in the end of the period.

Victoria defeated Westglen 5-2 in a rough Junior high school league football game Tuesday at Clarke Stadium.
Morris Boyd gave the Vic club their margin of victory with a disputed touchdown on a 75-yard run that came with two minutes left in the game.

A Victoria player apparently had been stopped when Boyd suddenly broke loose and was away before Westglen started to chase him. The west enders maintained the play

Lower SPORT

By STAN MOHER, Editor

Henry Roche Bows Out

It's probably correct to say that Henry Roche, whose retirement from the presidency of the Big Four inter-city baseball league due to pressure of business was announced officially Tuesday, turns over to Calgary's Sam Irwin with few regrets.

Mr. Roche experienced his headaches while handling the affairs of the circuit through its first two seasons. Principally there was the traditional Edmonton-Calgary rivalry with which to cope. Sometimes it was a healthy rivalry, one that was good for the league. At other times relations between team representatives, particularly, deteriorated to lower levels.

It's no secret that the John Ducey-Sam Timmins feud, whatever its implications in the beginning (it was generally looked upon as good clean fun to start) had taken on a more sombre meaning near the end of the 1948 season.

In fact 'Jap' Williams finally took over from 'Sad Sam' as representative of the Calgary Buffaloes at league gatherings. And if Ducey shed any tears over the substitution of Williams for the sad man the deluge was not along copious lines.

Remember the Gibson Incident?

Then there was the fact that a certain section of the Calgary press went out of its way to make it tough for Mr. Roche.

In this connection the retired league head was the victim of a number of well-intentioned, but ill-advised press moves from the editorial line to the swing of the disident four-star line.

Understand Mr. Roche had nothing to do with these moves. But they boomeranged in his direction nevertheless. Definitely he did not know as "a good typewriter press" in the Cowtown sheets. And while Mr. Roche never has indicated, one way or the other, that he has those ears, presumably he was at a loss at times to understand the attitude of the Calgary typewriter always.

Petty situations were seized upon and the mole-hill quickly ballooned into a mountain. "Roche is too close to the action," they have said. "Edmonton gets all the best of it when he hands down a decision."

For instance there was the time Jimmy Gibson, manager of the Buffs, took his team off the diamond to cut short the opening game of the league semifinals. For this Gibson should have got "4-B's."

When President Roche—after considerable consultation, including the calling of at least one extraordinary after-midnight meeting—suspended the Buff manager "for the balance of the series" it brought on the usual outburst from the Calgary press row.

Irwin Follows a Tough Act

Not that this unsympathetic approach to his problems as No. 1 league executive ever would have driven Mr. Roche to the point of tossing in the towel. He isn't built that way.

Nevertheless there's no good reason why he should have gone on much longer, inviting those certain, to be recurring headaches, certain to recur, that is, until such time as Calgary baseball men bring a more big-time point of view to Big Four problems.

Henry Roche long has been a successful executive—in business, fraternal organizations and sports groups. When the infant Big Four secured his services while desperately striving to get the league back in the spring of 1947, it was generally agreed that the move constituted a ten-strike.

There's no need to believe any differently today.

So now one Sam Irwin has the ball, just as the popular Ken Duggan has to a lesser degree, in that he will fill the role of vice-president.

We wish Mr. Irwin the best of luck. At the same time he should be warned he's following a tough act, as those Calgary folk may discover long before playoff time next August.

Cote Nominated As Canada's Top Athlete

MONTREAL, Oct. 20.—(CP)—The Quebec branch of the Amateur Athletic Union at its annual meeting nominated marathoner Gerard Cote of St. Hyacinthe as the division's choice for the Norton H. Crowe memorial trophy, to be awarded the man judged to be Canada's outstanding athlete.

Col. George Macbroom, president of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, told members "apathy has been our weakness too long," and said: "Let us stop this policy of amateur sport and turn our efforts to promoting sport."

Recently Sidney Dewar, former president of the Canadian Olympic Games Association, suggested the formation of a Canadian Sports Council to govern all amateur sports in Canada and help in the raising of funds for sport and Mr. Macbroom said he agreed "in principle."

But he said he could not endorse the proposal to the A.A.U. "as intimated by the congress last night" and suggested rather that the A.A.U. should be the heart

SCHOOL GRID CHAMPS MAY TACKLE CALGARY

There is a possibility that an inter-city high school football game between the Edmonton and Calgary champions may be played this year.

Stuart Bird, director of physical education for city schools, said Tuesday night the idea has been under consideration for some time and would be further discussed when he visited Calgary next week.

It has been some years since the break rivalry between the two cities was discontinued and a revival would do a lot of good for the high school game here. Iffy, the Dopester, our office sage, taps us on the shoulder to say that maybe the school ladies could do a little better against Calgary competition than the Maple Leaf junior team did at the week-end. He might have something there.

THIS STARRY COLLECTION of major league hockey talent represents 12 of 18 players who will oppose the world champion Toronto Maple Leafs in the NHL's second annual All-Star game at Chicago on Nov. 3.

Potent All-Star Squad to Oppose Leafs

MONTREAL, Oct. 20.—(CP)—Detroit's Tommy Ivan, coach of the 1948 National Hockey league All-Star, has gathered a powerful 18-man squad to oppose the Stanley Cup champion Toronto Maple Leafs in the second annual NHL All-Star game at Chicago on Nov. 3.

Besides the first and second All-Star teams as selected by the six NHL coaches at the close of last season Ivan has added such puckhandling luminaries as Milt Schmidt and Woody Dumart of Boston Bruins, Bill Durnan and Butch Bouchard of Montreal Canadiens, Leswick of New York Rangers, Doug Bentley of Chicago Black Hawks and Gordie Howe from his own Detroit Red Wings.

Two members of the official All-Star as picked last spring will not be playing for the All-Stars. They are goalie Turk Broda and centre Buddy O'Connor, Broda, who was named to the goal-keeping post on the first team is a member of Toronto Maple Leafs and will line up with the Stanley Cup holders, O'Connor, who was picked for centre on the second All-Star team, will not be able to play

Pat McGill Collapses Under 'Murder' Mills

Hart Emerges Triumphant In Farewell Performance

There is no joy in Edmonton, Irish Pat McGill has 'bit the dust.'

The San Francisco grappler was left weltering in his corpuses at the stock pavilion Tuesday night as Albert (Mr. Murder) Mills was awarded the feature event on the weekly wrestling card.

Nearly 2,000 fans witnessed Mills unleash a wicked assortment of elbow smashes and kicks to McGill's face in the 5th minute of action.

Irish Pat, the hero, slumped collapsed from the blows to ears, eyes and nose when whatever it was that was holding him up suddenly gave way.

McGill called on his last reserves, as the students of the game put it, to withstand the brutal attack. But he was reeling at the finish when Referee Walter Beaumont awarded the brawl to Mills, and wound up in the upcoming state of near-ignorance.

Prior to Mills' bloody drive both men captured one fall. Mr. Murder applied the Japanese Stretch for the first one after 27 minutes and McGill delighted members of the Pat McGill Fan Club with a drop kick to his opponent's jaw 19 minutes later.

Siu Hart, the pride and joy of all Edmonton, came through with a semi-victory over Panicleon Manalang of the Philippines. It was Hart's last night in the city before heading for the rings of New York and the Philippine first loss in Boston who was selected to the second All-Star team last spring.

Manalang pinned Hart with the Cobra hold at 14:53. Eight minutes later Hart squared the bat with a knee drop and a series of body presses. A flying cross finally won it all for the popular Edmonton wrestler.

In the preliminary Dave Huhl of Hanna and Juan Hernandez from Mexico finished in a 20-minute draw. This was a good clean fight with both men featuring a good collection of leg and arm locks.

Grants from the Calgary-Live stock of the four-legged variety invaded the stock pavilion next week and Promoter Al Osmay announced that his next card is billed for November 2.

This man Mills is a tough cookie, according to those brave souls who have heaved the bad man in his dressing room. He may be matched against Texas Jim Wright at an early date.

Those McGill-for-mayor fans, all 2,000 of 'em, have at least one consolation so far as Mills is concerned: Mr. Murder got his lungs to some degree Tuesday when the car he was driving from Calgary was sideswiped by a truck and smashed up somewhat.

Roddy MacDonald, Edmonton's boxing policeman, was introduced from outside prior to the first match last evening. . . . He isn't back at this time whether or not Osmay plans to promote fights involving the western Canadian lightweight champion.

Fire Fighters Save Castor Hospital

CASITOR, Oct. 20.—Fire seriously threatened the Castor hospital Friday morning when the schoolhouse, less than 20 feet away caught and blazed through the roof. Prompt action and hard work by the local volunteer fire brigade plus the use of every available extinguisher, held the fire in check.

Tanks of water, and the chemical truck and a bucket brigade made up of students confined the fire to the interior which is a total wreck. When the alarm was sounded, heavy smoke was pouring from the roof where most damage was done. Considering that a 25 mile wind was blowing much credit is due the local boys. We could not help but notice that several visiting "goose-hunters" were in the thick of the work and rendered splendid assistance.

Castor is a goose hunting center about 125 miles from the city. There is no running water and the fire department depended on a booster pump and portable 500 gallon tanks of water. This is the second serious fire this month in Castor as the bakery was gutted the night of Oct. 2.

Westlock Brigade Acts Promptly

WESTLOCK, Oct. 20.—Prompt action by the Westlock fire department saved from total loss a fire a combine on the farm of D. McMaster last Wednesday afternoon.

The fire department truck responded to the alarm within a few minutes after it sounded at the McMaster farm four miles from Westlock and within another few minutes had the fire, burning along the engine of the combine, completely out. The team with which the truck is equipped, was used for the job.

It is believed that the fire started from a short circuit which ignited the gas with which the machine was being refueled. Loss is in the hundreds of dollars, in the replacement of the engine and belts on the machine.

Windstorm Causes Heavy Clover Loss

WESTLOCK, Oct. 20.—Farmers in the district who had moved their clover crops previous to the big windstorm of last Thursday and Friday were faced with considerable loss through action of the wind on the clover, it was reported in the district this week.

The wind rolled the clover over for considerable distances, and the valuable seed was lost.

Some reports tell of stacks of clover, hopelessly tangled against a fence or other obstruction, stacked as high and as tightly as if pitchforked into place.

Others brought their combines along the fence lines and fed the tangled mass of vegetation into the machine to salvage what they could. Others just gave salvage up as a bad job. Losses were not as high as 50 to 70 percent in some instances.

Worst losses were some of the farmers along the river. It was reported that in several instances the whole crop was wind blown right off the fields into the stream, to become a complete loss.

"3 or 4" Atom Bombs Said 1945 Stockpile

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—(BUP)—The United States had no more than three or four atomic bombs in 1945 when military leaders were charting the invasion of Japan, it was reported today.

This, according to the Democratic national committee, was why President Truman was anxious to draw Russia into the Pacific war. But it denied that his anxiety led him to sell America short.

SOURCE UNDISCLOSED

The statements were included in a special "fact sheet" prepared by the committee's research division for use by Democratic campaigners. The source of its information was not disclosed.

The report said that although Japan was being lashed by American air forces in 1945, the Japanese

Bride Killed On 'Beautiful' Sunday

Girl Says Accused Planned To Make Wife Disappear

LA MALBAIE, Que., Oct. 20.—(CP)—A slim, dark-eyed country girl in a blue beret told a court of king's bench yesterday how Lionel Huard wooed her and planned "to make his British bride disappear on a beautiful Sunday."

Huard, charged with murdering his wife, Marie Tremblay, was tried by a court of king's bench yesterday. The girl's testimony was an appearance of bitterness.

WROTE LETTERS

She related how Huard began corresponding with her on New Year's Day and wrote her letters every two days.

She said she used to come to see her father and that she would find his letter in his hat box.

She admitted she replaced every letter with one of her own during the course of the visit to her home. This continued until last May 6, when Huard told her "I have found the spot."

She quoted him as saying: "On the next beautiful Sunday she will disappear."

'HAD TO FIGHT'

The girl told of Huard's visit "the day" when he said "I almost missed it. I had to fight with her and she almost threw me in the water."

The girl admitted Huard "touched me" and "asked me to sleep with him" a few days before the drowning but asserted that "I never submitted and refused him."

Defence counsel Frederic Dorion had just started questioning the girl concerning the authenticity of the hand-print trial exchanges when Mr. Justice Alfred Savard adjourned the trial.

The letters, testified the Tremblay girl, were all destroyed "as part of his bargain, the 'fact sheet' said.

Although the atom bomb "undoubtedly" was the major factor in Japan's unconditional surrender, it added, Russia's declaration of war apparently convinced Japanese leaders the war was hopeless.

President Truman and the late F.D.R. cannot be blamed for the failure of the Russians to keep their pledges made at the international conference, the report said. "The blame rests on the shoulders of war, Stalin agreed and held to that Stalin and Molotov."

The committee's nominating committee submitted the names of aldermen Sidney Brown, Mitchell and Hanna, Mr. Hawick and Brigg to the meeting and nominations from the floor were Aldermen A. Hunter, R. C. Har and John H. "Jack" Weber.

BOWCOTT OUT

Ballooning on the aldermanic campaign submitted the names of aldermen Sidney Brown, Mitchell and Hanna, Mr. Hawick and Brigg to the meeting of Alderman Howard organized former mayor, who headed the poll in the 1946 election.

It is the third alderman formerly elected on the Citizens' Committee slate rejected by the organization in its determination to introduce a new "blood" to the city.

Monday Aldermen Mitchell and Hanna, J. G. Givrie, K.C., received communications from the organization stating their names would not be placed in the 1948 election.

In this communication it was stated they had indicated to the organization their willingness to resign.

Both aldermen denied having given any such indication to the committee.

SOME DOUBT

Some doubt exists whether or not Mr. Hanna will be able to contest the election.

He must obtain permission from the department of veterans affairs in order to be a candidate.

He stated at the meeting that he would seek this permission immediately.

If he cannot obtain permission, Ald. Howard, who was fifth in the balloting will be asked to take his place on the slate.

Selection of Mr. Hanna, who is a

Officials of Oliver Community League are disappointed at the means of putting a halt to vandals in the rink house and to their skating rink.

The rink is located on 118 street and 100 and 102 avenue.

One official said the community raised $1500 a year ago to improve the rink and had been in the rink house and installed many conveniences.

James Walker Will Head Edmonton Arts Museum

James Walker was elected president of the Edmonton Museum of Art at the annual meeting Tuesday night.

Life succeeds retiring president, Julian Garrett, who will be retained in the executive as immediate past president.

Other members of the executive include: J. Duggan as first vice-president, S. A. Dickson second vice-president, H. L. Robinson treasurer, and J. G. Dale secretary.

In presenting the 25th annual report, past President Garrett expressed his hope that a satisfactory plan can be worked out, whereby this rapidly-growing city will have a museum of art, center commensurate with its importance not only as the capital of this province, but also as an economic, educational, and cultural center.

A grant of $600 was obtained last year from the province, Mr. Garrett announced.

We appreciate this tangible evidence of recognition of what we are, doing in the way of providing education in art for children of school age, he said.

The primary function of the museum is to display interesting and instructive exhibitions of pictures and objects having some art value. Director Hedley said in his annual report.

Polio Total Swells To 331

Three new cases of polio were reported today in the North West Territories.

Two of the cases were from the North West Territories where a young man of 18 and another man, age 20, reported, are said to have the disease.

The third case was that of a lady of 14 from Slave. This brings the provincial total to 331.

and Donald Charnsworth, both residents of the Humber River, 10412 105 street, having recently come to the city from Yellowknife, in the Northwest Territories.

City Council Approves Sub-Standard Houses

A new deal for persons living in sub-standard premises, and also for those wishing to erect sub-standard type housing was approved Tuesday by city council.

Aldermen approved a recommendation from the city commissioners that three areas in the agricultural zone be designated as districts in which sub-standard houses could be erected.

They instructed the city commissioners to formulate regulations governing the erection of these houses, and requested the city solicitor to prepare the amendment to the existing bylaw in permit the construction of the sub-standard dwellings.

The commissioners proposal was adopted to assist those who are either living in sub-standard temporary quarters, or those who wish to erect sub-standard residences.

Scuttling rise in building costs make it prohibitive for many people to erect even minimum standard homes in the latter zone, they said.

THREE AREAS

Tentative areas in which the sub-standard houses would be erected are in the vicinity of the Burns Co. North Edmonton, between the west of 127 street and north of 120 street, and an area east of 100 street and east of Mill Creek.

The city would rent land in these areas to prospective builders at a nominal rental. The period of rental would be for three years.

The short term rental period is fixed to prevent any third party from purchasing the land and then building a permanent structure, and also to ensure that the scheme would be limited as to duration.

Council will be taken on all leases to ensure the civic administration control to prevent the erection of slum areas in the designated districts.

The sub-standard houses would be of standard design and size. The site suggested by Assistant City Architect H. F. Duke is 12 by 32 feet outside dimensions. They would be constructed on well soils to permit moving them at the expiration of the lease period.

UTILITY SERVICE

The property would be serviced with electricity, water and sewerage service, and it would be subject to all city regulations.

All three areas tentatively selected as sites for these houses are within three blocks of transportation.

Tenants would be prohibited from moving to the site until the houses would be placed on 30 foot lots.

Ten Candidates Seen in Election

Dropped Citizens' Trio May Run Independently

By Wm. "Spud" Murphy

Possibility of a field of 10 aldermanic candidates to contest the five vacancies on city council in the November 3 election was seen by political observers here today.

Rejection of three retiring aldermen by the Citizens' Committee may result in them entering the contest as independents. They have not declared their intentions to date.

In the meantime Returning Officer George S. Docherty reminds prospective candidates that nomination papers must be taken out by Friday, as the Civic block is closed on Saturday.

Nomination papers have been issued to Fred J. Spind and Mrs. Julia Kinski, who are seeking election to the aldermanic board.

OWYNE MAY RUN

H. R. Fowler, Citizens' Committee candidate for public school board, took out his nomination papers today.

Fred J. Killeen, retiring separate school trustee, also has taken out his nomination papers.

It is rumored that Percy J. Gwynne, candidate on the Civic Democratic Alliance slate last year, will seek election to the city council as an independent.

Nominations will be received by Mr. Docherty at the Civic block on Monday between 11 a.m. and noon.

Mr. Docherty reported that all polls are fully manned, and polling stations are ready for the vote on November 3. See story on page 13.

Heavy Loot Garnered By Thieves

Thieves literally had a heavy haul in the city overnight, police reports revealed.

Stolen was a heavy duty truck trailer and the engine from a cement mixer on a construction project.

A heavy duty lumber truck trailer owned by Bert Glover was taken from a lane at the rear of his property at 9625 180A avenue.

The cement mixer engine was stolen from John Schadeck, 10410 46 street. It was in use on house construction at 10425 138 street.

W. Leigh Brimble, president of Arctic Airlines, reported theft of 300 Winchester rifle from an aircraft in a hangar at the city airport.

The gun formed part of emergency equipment kept in aviation planes.

A parking meter was "thrown for a loss" in a freak accident Tuesday afternoon, caused by a locked starter on a car.

James A. Fair, 11084 63 street, told city police he pressed the starter of his car on 160 street near Jasper avenue with surprising results.

The car jumped over the curb and rammed a parking meter standard, which was bent at 30-degree angle.

Broadcasters' Head Praises City Spirit

Enthusiastic public support has given local radio talent greater opportunity in Edmonton than in any other city of comparative size.

Praise of Edmontonians' attitude came from J. T. Allard of Ottawa, general manager of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters, who is in Edmonton today for the CAB regional meeting.

"The drift of good radio talent to the more lucrative markets of Ontario and the United States has been in a far smaller proportion than from other cities," Mr. Allard said.

Television will offer greater opportunity for local talent, Mr. Allard said.

And television is "only as far away as the CBC's decision to grant radio licences to Canadian stations."

Five eastern broadcasters will make application for television licences this month the CAB of Ottawa said.

As for public taste in radio Mr. Allard had this to say:

SUPERIOR TALENT

"Here's the reason—first Edmonton has superior local talent; second—that talent takes the time and trouble to train itself to good radio standards; finally—public support of local talent is such that Edmonton radio artists can make a decent living wage here."

EFFECTIVE METHOD

Singing commercials are probably enjoyed equally well much as they are "detested" by various sections of the listeners. At any rate, the jingles are effective sales methods, and will probably remain in popular use for some time.

Fests Confirm Anthrax Case

Tests at Alberta's provincial laboratory here have confirmed the diagnosis of anthrax which brought down a lad in southern Alberta last week.

Provincial health authorities said today while the "meat" submitted for laboratory analysis did not respond fully to indicate the presence of anthrax, it was felt the penicillin treatments administered before the ameb was taken had contaminated the virus.

This is the third case of the disease recorded in Alberta's medical history, a search of who files in provincial health officers disclosed.

The last previous case was in 1942.

The sun takes about 2 days to make one complete revolution.

Polio Case Reported From Athabasca

One case of polio was reported to provincial health authorities today to bring the provincial total this year to 32.

The latest report came from Athabasca where a nine-year-old boy is said to have been stricken.

BRITAIN LONG WAY FROM SELF-SUPPORT

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(Reuters) Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, last night described the general picture of Britain's economic progress as "encouraging," but added "we are still a long way from self-support."

"We shall have our job cut out to maintain our present volume of exports, let alone increase it," he told bankers and merchants of the City of London at a dinner here.

"We need and are grateful for the European Recovery Program, but we shall be infinitely more gratified when we can recover our complete economic independence."
